Illustration to Oliver Botar's documentary articles on László Moholy-Nagy

1. László Moholy-Nagy's note to his "Magyar testvéreim" [Hungarian compatriots], of Oct. 18, 1945, accompanying a $50.00 donation to the Chicago group of the Hungarian-American Relief movement. The note reads: "I am with you, I feel with you — you [must] continue the great task of helping the suffering [people] of the o'country. I enclose a cheque for $50.00 — a little drop in the vast sea..." From file 21 (328/1981) of the György Striker Papers, Magyar Nemzeti Galéria Adattára (Archives of the Hungarian National Gallery).
