

CONTENTS

SOCIETY UNDER SURVEILLANCE

Heléna Huhák	Alternative Modes of Surveillance. Party Agitation at Home and the Visits of a Council Member in Angyalföld	5
Lajos Somogyvári	The 1949 Elections through American Eyes: Diplomatic Field Reports from the Hungarian Countryside	25
Krisztina Slachta	Invisible Aggression. The Force Fields of the Invisible Presence of State Security and the System of their Concepts of Enemy – Possibilities of Interpretation and Analysis	49
Géza Vörös	Nuns in the Crosshairs of the Political Police, or What's a Wiretap Worth?	66
Viktor Attila Soós	Conspired Apartment “Wedge” in the Intelligence Service	87
András Murai – Brigitta Németh	“The System Had their Eye on Us”: Surveillance among Former Gulag Prisoners	112
Péter István Pap	Under Pressure by Force or by Choice. The Attila József Circle and the Establishment 1983–1986	128

Bence Csatári	“Hi Gábor, How Are You?” Attitudes of Agents and Subjects of Surveillance in the Kádár Era Pop Music Scene through the Lens of Present-Day Narratives	150
---------------	---	-----

PANORAMA

Viktor Fehér	Trends and Schools of Yugoslavia Memory Research Report on Papers Given at the Memory Culture Section of the 4th Socialism on the Bench International Conference, 26–28 September 2019, Pula	173
--------------	--	-----

BOOKS

School of Emotions Erdélyi Gabriella (szerk.): Érzelmek és mostohák. Mozaikcsaládok a régi Magyarországon 1500–1850.	– Angelika T. Orgona	177
Petrás Éva: Álarcok mögött. Nagy Töhötöm életei.	– Gábor Bánkuti	185
Mátay Mónika (szerk.): Kőszegi történetek.	– László Z. Karvalics	192
Authors		196
Contents		198
Abstracts		200