

The Financial and Economic Review in 2015

In the last issue of the year we would like to make a short summary of the published studies, the authors and our reviewers in 2015. This year the Financial and Economic Review published 24 studies, 2 essays, 2 discussions, 2 reviews, 31 book reviews, 4 conference reports. We published a special issue (Structure and Evolution of Banking Systems) in November in which our authors presented the transformation of the banking sector in 16 independent countries in the pre and post crisis period.

Our 97 authors were mainly colleagues of the Magyar Nemzeti Bank but we have received a number of manuscripts from Hungarian and foreign academics, researchers and government officials.

The journal strives for publishing only high quality manuscripts so our reviewers play a crucial role in the publication process. With their professionalism and elaborate reviews they help our authors to write papers with the highest scientific value. In addition, they are helping us to publish only the best studies in the different issues of the Financial and Economic Review.

When choosing our reviewers (60) we focused on our editorial board in 2015. Besides, academic members, researchers, colleagues of the Magyar Nemzeti Bank, the Hungarian Banking Association, the European Central Bank, the Bank for International Settlements, the European Commission helped us a lot.

INSTRUCTION FOR AUTHORS

Manuscripts should be submitted in accordance with the following rules.

- The length of the manuscripts should be limited to 40 000 characters (including spaces) but a ± 50 per cent deviation is accepted. Manuscripts should be written in Hungarian and/or English.
- Papers always begin with an abstract which should not exceed 800–1000 characters. In the abstract a brief summary is to be given in which the main hypotheses and points are highlighted.
- At the bottom of the title page a footnote is to be given. The footnote contains every necessary information related to the paper (acknowledgement, relevant information etc.). This is followed by the name of the institution and position the author works at, e-mail address in Hungarian and English.
- Journal of Economic Literature (JEL) classification numbers should be given (three at least).
- Manuscripts should be written in clear, concise and grammatically correct Hungarian and/or English. Chapters and subchapters should be bold.
- Manuscripts should contain the list of references with the first and surname of the authors (in case of non-Hungarians the initials of the first name is required), the year of publication, the exact title of the book, the publisher, the place of publication. In case of papers, the exact title of the journal, the year, the volume, and the pages should be indicated. References in the text should contain the surname and the year separated by comma. When citing, the exact page be indicated.
- Tables and figures are to be numbered continuously (chapters and subchapters should not contain restarted numbering). Every table and figure should have a title and the units of quantitative values are to be indicated. Tables and figures are to be made by MS Word and Excel in Hungarian and English. Notes and sources are to be put directly at the bottom of the tables, figures.
- Equations should be aligned to the right and should be numbered continuously in parenthesis. (Chapters and subchapters should not contain restarted numbering.)
- Manuscripts are to be sent to the Editorial Office of the FER only. Papers are peer-reviewed by two independent and anonymous reviewers.
- Manuscripts should be sent as attachment by e-mail in MS Word file. Figures and tables should be sent in MS Excel file both in Hungarian and English.
- In case of further questions related to the manuscript visit the following website: http://english.hitelintezetiszemle.hu/szerzoknek/Authors_Guide_EN.pdf
